Uses Gun and Hammer to Slay Man Caught
With Wife.

Woman Looks On During Tragedy Enacted In Kitchen

Canton, O., Sept. 13.—Earl Koehler, 36, shot Charles Roof, five times with a revolver and then beat his head in with a hammer when he found him in the Koehler home Friday evening in company with Mrs. Mary Koehler, 32. The murder occurred in the kitchen of the Koehler home in Magnolia, 12 miles south of Canton.

Koehler called the Village Marshall by telephone and told him what he had done. Sheriff C. W. Kirk investigating the slaying took both Mr. and Mrs. Koehler to the Stark county jail. Charges have not yet been placed against Koehler.

Roof, who is employed in Magnolia, is unmarried. It is believed he died immediately from the bullet wounds. However, Koehler used a hammer to beat his skull as he lay on the floor. Mrs. Koehler witnessed the crime.

PRINCE OF WALES DOES HIS HUNTING WHILE HE'S ASLEEP

Society On Hand Early
But Fox Hunt Fails
To Develop.

Syosset, L. I., Sept. 13.—There was another hunt by the fashionable of Long Island today, but from a fox hunt it developed into a hunt for the Prince of Wales.

Sixty persons, many of them women, in smart riding habits, gathered on the Ralph Ellis estate shortly after 5 o'clock this morning. It was a mile from the James A. Burden home, where the Prince is a house guest.

Many women wearing riding habits under long cloaks, came to the field in motor cars having sent their horses ahead of them. The word had gone about that Wales was going on the hunt.

In the dewy damp of the morning men and women and impatient horses chased about a cluster of dogs waiting for His Royal Highness. Finally they decided to go on without the Prince. There was disappointment among the hunters and particularly among the huntresses.

With the sun now high in the eastern heavens they decided to go on. They did not know that the prince got home very late and at the moment, was catching up on sleep.

NOTE IMPROVEMENT IN OHIO CONDITIONS

Washington, Sept. 13.—Gradual improvement along business and industrial lines is shown by a survey of conditions in Ohio just completed by the department of labor. The state at large and 21 Ohio cities are covered in the report of the survey. Concerning general conditions in the state at large the report says: "A slight improvement in employment was noted during August. The steel industry is recovering from its recent depression and building in Ohio is on the increase. Many coal miners in the New Philadelphia district are unemployed. A steady increase of production in rubber factories during the past several weeks resulted in a large addition to working forces in the various plants. A new $3,000,000 plant of a large plate-glass company at Fultonham is just getting into operation and will afford employment to a number of men. The first two units of a large electric plant at Philo, near Zanesville, will start running in less than a month."

GIRL IS FOUND IN RAILROAD BOX CAR

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 13.—A mystery today confronts local police in the case of Jennie Wagner, 20, pretty Williamson, W. Va., girl, found last night locked in a boxcar in the local B. and O. yards, who must have been in the car two or three days, but who insists she has no knowledge of how long she occupied her rolling prison or how she came to be in it. She was weak from lack of food when found by railroaders, who called the police and the girl is now detained in the jail pending investigation, and under medical treatment.

The girl talks in a rambling way and can give the police no help in their investigation. She is the daughter of John Wagner, of Williamson, a town located on the N. and W. some six miles from Huntington and it would have taken her car at least two days to have come to Wheeling via fast freight.

Legion officials stated. "The American Legion has nothing whatever to do with politics," said National Commander John R. Quinn.

PROSPECTS OF CRISIS LOOMS ON WAR GUILT

German Government Denies Responsibility
For Conflict

Stressemann Favors Note
To Allies to That Effect.

Berlin, Sept. 13.—Prospects of a cabinet crisis loomed today over the war guilt question.

The government, it is understood, has virtually decided to send a note to the allied powers denying sole responsibility for the great war and will announce Germany's intention of remaining outside the League of Nations until war guilt is officially fixed. There is opposition to this course with in the cabinet but the movement in its support is strong.

Foreign Minister Stressemann has returned from his vacation and is holding daily conferences with his colleagues upon the issue. For the time being the war guilt issue overshadows the reparations question.

Stressemann has taken his stand with those who favor the sending of the note. This attitude has aroused a storm of protest on the part of Socialists and Democratic newspapers, while the national press is rejoicing.

Conservative leaders point to the possible bad effect of the proposed war guilt note upon the Dawes' reparations plan, meanwhile making allusion to the fact that the United States is opposed to having the question of war guilt opened at this time.

The nationalists claim Germany must establish her innocence of war responsibility or else refrain from entrance into the league of nations.

German financiers who will participate in the attempt to float a $200,000,000 loan for Germany have brought pressure upon the government not to send the note. They claim it will kill chances of selling German reparations bonds in the United States, England and Italy.

Meanwhile the note, already drawn up, reposes in the files of the foreign office. Its fate will not be definitely decided until next week.

RAY ALLISON WILL ASSIGN ORATORS

Columbus, Sept. 13.—Ray Allison, an attaché of the state securities department, has resigned to accept the chairmanship of the speakers' bureau of the Democratic state committee, T. E. Dye, state chairman, announced. Mr. Allison will look after the assignment of all speakers during the campaign and when he assumed office today he found hundreds of requests from county committees, which he will fill as far as possible during the next few weeks. Mr. Dye is in Washington to make sure of securing a number of prominent Democrats for the campaign. It was also announced that Mrs. F. M. Gorman of Cincinnati, vice president of the executive committee, will take up her duties at state headquarters next week. She will be in charge of women's organization work. John Wood of Georgetown has been made treasurer of the campaign committee.

DEATH INCREASE IN OHIO IS NOTED

Columbus, Sept. 13.—According to the monthly report of John H. Lambeck, chief of the workmen's compensation division of the department of public relations, 83 workmen met death in industrial accidents during the month of August and 15,383 others were injured. A greater number of claims were heard and collections were nearly $1,000,000 in excess of the July collections, the report also showed.

Disbursements from the state insurance fund during August amounted to $378,357.90. Compared with this stood a collection during the month of $1,767,240.94 in premiums, making a balance of $46,581,212.83 in the fund. Of this sum, $42,194,488.59 is reserved for paying claims allowed injured workmen and dependents of those killed. The surplus fund had a balance of $1,866,112.09.

Death claims filed showed 18 more workers were killed during August than in July, but there was a reduction in the number of those injured by 196.

Pershing Lets Gauntlet Fall Amidst High Praise

Washington, Sept. 13.—President Coolidge today paid a glowing tribute to General John J. Pershing, who, having reached his sixty-fourth birthday, retired as general of the armies of the United States.

"General Pershing has already received from the congress the thanks of that body and of the American people and I now extend to him anew the thanks of the nation for his eminent service and feel certain that I voice the sentiment of the entire citizenry of the Republic in wishing him long life, happiness and prosperity in the retirement he has so richly earned," President Coolidge declared.

In praising Pershing, President Coolidge said he wished to "renew the country of his eminent service and of the nation's obligation to one whose accomplishments contributed so largely to the defense of the world's liberties."

Because of his successes in the Indian campaigns, the Spanish American war and the Mexican border troubles in 1916, Pershing's selection as "commander of the American expeditionary forces in the world war was a natural consequence," Mr. Coolidge said.

"The American troops under his command by their presence, high qualities and skillful management assisted materially in the defeat of the central powers of Europe which resulted in the freedom of civilization from autocratic rule," added the president.

"In his position as chief of staff since the termination of the world conflict he has been a mainstay to the executive in preparing an army of modest dimensions to be the nucleus of any military force the country may be obligated to place in the field. He has taken a leading part in the development of the citizen components of the army of the United States."

INTERNATIONAL POLO CUP SERIES READY TO START SATURDAY-LACEY IN BRITISH LINEUP

Westbury, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Everything is in readiness for the start of the international polo cup series this afternoon at four o'clock at the Meadowbrook Field and despite the many postponements a large and enthusiastic gathering of polo fans is expected to attend. The players are on edge, the ponies are fit and the field could not be in better condition.

Both English and American players anxiously await the throwing in of the opening ball that will start the game. The opposing fours concluded their hard work with workouts Thursday.

The American polo committee expects a crowd of 40,000 to witness the first game. Frequent train service on the Long Island railroad will carry the fans direct from New York and other points to the international field.

Early in the week, the red, white and blue four was installed a favorite at 3 to 1. These odds have held since, although there may be a change in the quotation now that Luis Lacey takes his place as number 4 man on the British team.

The showing the stars make this afternoon, depends greatly upon the condition of Lacey who was taken down with a case of "shingles" immediately before the originally scheduled contest of last Saturday. Early today it was officially announced that Lacey had recovered.

With the Argentinian in the game at back the prospects brighten visibly for Lacey is probably the greatest player among the visitors. If the several postponements have given time for the star of the British team to round into shape again, there will be no regrets among American sportsmen.

The second of the series will be played on Tuesday, September 16 and the third and final contest which will be played regardless of the outcome of the first two games, is scheduled for the following Saturday, Sept. 20.

NAMES OF WHEELER AND LA FOLLETTE TO GO ON OHIO BALLOTS

Petitions of Other Independents Are Expected By Brown

Columbus, Sept. 13.—Independent progressives will be on the Ohio ballot in November. Petitions bearing 28,000 names have been filed with Secretary of State Brown, insuring a place on the ticket for Senators La Follette and Wheeler, who head the new party.

Only 17,271 signatures are required under the law, and would validate the petitions, so that with more than 10,000 in excess of the required number, the placing of the names of the new party on the Ohio ballot is made certain. As the time for filing petitions for independent candidates does not expire until Monday night, Secretary Brown said he expected that several thousand additional signatures would be filed before the closing hour. Workers are still circulating the petitions.

The largest number of signers was from Cuyahoga county, where 22,156 valid signatures were certified by the election board of that county. Franklin county signers numbered 3,488, while Stark had 1,491, Richland, 584, and Belmont, 517. Other petitions were received from smaller counties with an accordingly smaller number of signatures, all of which had been approved as valid by county election boards.

Secretary Brown said that he expected several other independent parties to file before the closing hour Monday, including the Commonwealth Land party, Socialist-Labor party, and the Socialists as well as the Prohibitionists, who may be able to qualify.

The Commonwealth Land party, headed by J. J. Wallace for president and J. C. Lincoln for vice president, has already 15,966 valid signatures filed and approved by the Cuyahoga county election board. This party will also have a complete state ticket in the field. The Prohibition party has 5,549 signatures on file from Franklin county and the Socialist-Labor party has 3,315 signatures on file from Cuyahoga county and 634 from Stark.

The Commonwealth Land party state ticket is headed by Virgil D. Allen of Cleveland for governor, and W. O. Bass of Youngstown for lieutenant governor. The Socialist-Labor national ticket is headed by Frank T. Johns of Portland, Oregon, for president, and Verne L. Reynolds of Baltimore, Md., for vice president. Felix J. Catlin of Scienceville is the gubernatorial candidate.

Fire Attacks Village.

Portsmouth, O., Sept. 13.—Fire destroyed a number of buildings in the village of Rome, in Adams county. Eight structures, including K. of P. hall, were razed. Fire companies from this city and nearby Adams county villages aided the Rome fire fighters.

MANCHURIANS BEGIN MARCH UPON CAPITAL

Government at Peking Preparing for Hostile Invasion

City Under Martial Law In Readiness For Attackers

Shanghai, Sept. 13.—The government at Peking is preparing for hostilities. Sixty thousand troops are making ready to repel an invasion from the north.

The city has been placed under martial law by an order extending the powers of the gendarmerie.

Chang Tso Lin is mobilizing his full forces and moving southward from Manchuria, explaining as he advanced that this is merely a customary "autumn maneuver." The Peking government, headed by President Tao K'un, and maintained by the alliance of Wu Pei Fu and Chi Hsieh Yuan, has announced its unalterable opposition to any intervention by the powers. It is willing to stand or fall on the strength of the present unification policy.

The rival armies deadlocked before Shanghai still are prevented by miry conditions under foot from renewing their conflict. General Lu Yung Hsiang visited his front and made speeches to cheer up the troops.

The Manchurian army is said to be under the command of General Li Ching-Ling, with Chang Tso-Lin's son, General Chang Hsueh-Liang, as second in command. The arsenal at Mukden is working overtime with conscripted labor to turn out munitions for the proposed assault on Peking and the allies of Wu Pei-Fu, military dictator in the Chinese capital.

The Chinese government was officially informed by the French legation at Peking that the French government is without power to stop the sale of commercial airplanes to Chang Tso Lin, war lord of Manchuria. The Chinese foreign office previously had protested against the purchase by the Manchurian dictator of a number of Breguet airplanes, insisting that it was obvious that Chang's intention was to employ the machines for war purposes. This, it was urged, would make sale of the airplanes to the Manchurian a violation of the arms embargo agreement. The French replied that the planes in question, it was understood, were commercial planes and that there was no French law forbidding the exportation of them.

PLEA FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS MADE BY DR. ERVIN E. DEER, ADDRESSING JUBILEE MEET OF COUNTY W. C. T. U. HERE FRIDAY P. M.

"The question, 'Shall we be dominated by a military clique in America?' is still to be answered. We went into the war to make the world safe for democracy, but democracy is not safe, even in America, in fact it is seriously in danger," declared Dr. Ervin E. Deer of Dayton, secretary of the Ohio Federation of Churches, pointing out the unpopular points in the preparation of war, at the fiftieth annual convention of the Greene County W. C. T. U. in the First Presbyterian Church, Friday afternoon. Dr. Deer was the principal speaker of the convention.

"The world war has not accomplished a thing. Today there are more men in arms than in 1914. The United States has adopted the militaristic plan of Europe," he continued.

"The church needs to throw its help to setting up the machines of peace. There is an offer of world co-operation at the door of America, an offer that is a wonderful opportunity. I regret deeply the lack of idealism in America in not joining in this great adventure.

"The plan is as yet experimental but is worth trying in faith. It is the least expensive for it has been proven that war is the most expensive and ineffective method of settling international questions whereas the League of Nations and the World Court are infinitely better than war.

"It has been estimated that 338 million dollars was the cost of the World War. Although the amount of life or money cannot be realized or estimated, the cost in morals to the countries concerned will never be known. All the money and life spent would not be wasted if we had accomplished something. No one lost or won the last war.

"Try the new method, America! It is infinitely better than the old methods of war and bloodshed. Give it a chance. The trouble with the Christian church today is that it has come to believe more in organization than in spirit. It should disseminate to the world the brotherhood of man. In our conceit we have set our selves as highest, we Anglo-Saxons. We think we are the cream of creation and look down on all others.

"We haven't understood the other races, creeds and colors and we need a larger appreciation of other peoples.

"America has not always been in harmony with the ideals with which she was founded. War should not be glorified, which idea we contemptuously gave to the German people. Our American histories should be revised, tales of our war victories and heroes to give way to the real American heroes, the men of industry, the inventors, scientists and others.

"Foreign missions and other similar Christian methods promote peace. Our kindness to Japan at the time of the earthquake has made the brainlessness of Congress and its exclusion act futile.

"I do not advocate a program denouncing war but rather an instructive program of education, such as that used through the last fifty years by your organization.

"Sometimes war is inevitable but it should be studied and the cause eradicated. For after all, under the false scenery and surface, the main cause of war is economic imperialism. The seizing of vast territories necessitates armament to protect the holdings and this breeds fear and distrust. Most people do not understand the method employed in grasping power by countries and the result.

"Jesus' teachings went out beyond racial boundaries. America

COURT NEWS

SUES FOR DAMAGES

Chester E. Bradstreet has filed suit in Common Pleas Court for $505.23 against The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, alleging that amount due him as a result of a collision between a grocery truck owned by the plaintiff and a train January 2, 1924.

The plaintiff alleges that Lawrence Luttrell, driving one of the plaintiff's trucks, approached a railroad crossing on West Second Street about 8:30 on that evening, and after stopping, looking and listening for the approach of a train, proceeded across the tracks. The plaintiff claims that a train approaching from the north, struck and carried the truck thirty-five yards, badly wrecking it.

The plaintiff contends that the train was approaching at the rate of fifteen miles an hour, in violation of the city ordinance which allows but six miles an hour, and also that the defendant had not watchman or warning device at the crossing.

The plaintiff further claims the truck was loaded with groceries, which were partly destroyed, resulting in a damage of $54.08, that two tires were ruined worth $50, that the truck was broken and crushed, that the repair work on the truck amounted to $251.15, and that the plaintiff was damaged $150, being without use of the truck for ten days. L. T. Marshall is attorney for the plaintiff.

WILL BELLBROOK MAGNETIC SPRINGS BE RESTORED TO FORMER POPULARITY?

When the United Presbyterians removed their congregation from Bellbrook the church building was sold and the work of remodeling it for a dwelling was begun.

When the plasterer was at work, by chance, he threw his trowel into a keg of nails. On picking it up the nails clung fast to it. Experiments plainly showed that the water used in mixing the mortar transferred magnetic properties to his trowel.

Work on the dwelling was at once stopped and the old building was converted into a hotel. Many stories are told of the throngs that drove to Bellbrook by all roads on the Sunday following the discovery; also as time passed it is said many crippled by rheumatism or otherwise ill were brought in on stretchers only to walk away cured.

The hotel burned and a bathhouse was erected in its stead. At length this also was burned at the time the owner was re-covering the roof. A large container of tar was placed on an oil stove and while he was at work on the roof the tar boiled over and the whole thing was consumed.

Meantime a hotel had been erected across the street. This served the public for some years when it likewise was destroyed by fire. The cook had started a fire early in the morning and then returned to bed. A defective flue failed to restrain the huge fire she had made and the hotel burned to the ground. Since then Bellbrook has been without a hotel.

The owner of the spring at one time wished to increase the flow of the medical water to meet the increasing demand. Consequently he enlarged the well. In so doing he seems to have let in surface water; at all events the properties of the water all once made it so famous were almost wholly lost. When the bathhouse burned the debris was heaped over the well and the whole venture abandoned.

The property, now in the hands of the Gibbons interests of Dayton, will be carefully surveyed with an idea of future development. It is possible that a careful excavation may rediscover the original magnetic spring. In any case the situation of the grounds is such as to make it an ideal place for a sanitarium, or a retreat for the weary city-dwellers or a hostelry for pleasure-seekers. Decisive action in the near future may be assuredly expected.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL CAFETERIA

One of the most attractive features of the new Central High School building, the cafeteria, has been gotten in readiness and furnished for the opening of the school year, Monday.

The cafeteria has been judged by visitors to the school as one of the finest in Ohio. It has a seating capacity for 60 persons and delicious menus are served daily to school pupils.

The attractive furnishings of the cafeteria include cretonne covers for the backs of each of the chairs at the tables, made by Mrs. Pearl Wolf, who has charge of the cafeteria. The tables were made by the pupils of the manual training department of the high school.

The cafeteria is arranged and managed on the same plan as city cafeterias and has all the modern equipment in readiness for Mrs. Wolf and her assistants. Besides being a well ordered and managed department of the regular school work, cafeteria has a home-like appearance.

In the Home Economics room where the school girls prepare the food for each day, are eight tables where they work. Thirty-two girls of the school prepare the food, with the exception of the meats which are cooked and prepared by Mrs. Wolf and her assistant, Mrs. Cora Maxey. The dishes are washed and dried by girls of the Opportunity School.

The cafeteria is entirely self-supporting even to the repairs which are made by boys of the manual training department.

Through money obtained in a school "drive" the pupils of the Opportunity School, nearby, were fed a full menu for fifteen cents at the cafeteria.

The following menu has been prepared by Mrs. Wolf for the opening day of school: roast beef, .09; brown potatoes and gravy, .03; bread and butter, .04; sandwiches, .03; vegetable salad, .04; custard, .04; ice cream, .05; and cocoa, .04.

All friends and patrons are invited to inspect or eat at the cafeteria any school day of the week, according to C. A. Waltz, superintendent of schools.

"CRITICISM" OR "HUMOR," AS YOU PLEASE

Every day on a certain column of the Philadelphia Public Ledger appears a column of perhaps mild criticism or as some might say "making fun" of certain conditions of society or public life, under the general heading of "On Second Thought," by Jay E. House. Here is the lower half of the article in last Friday's paper. Take it for what it is worth or isn't worth, as a "sample" of "criticism" or "humor" as you please:

"I think I wrote you about Louella being at the springs and about how it was costing me $8 a week for her board and two or three dollars a week for expenses besides. Well, she stayed all summer and says she is going again next year. She says it is the only good time she ever had. But that is all foolishness, because me and her have had lots of good times. I remember once we set up till 12 o'clock popping corn and eating apples. But that is not the worst of it. You know I wrote you about this game of bridge that she had learned. I did not think much about it then, but I have had my eyes opened. It is a gambling game and they play it with cards. I never was more surprised in my life when I found out Louella was gambling, and I don't know which way to turn. As soon as she came home she joined a club in town and they have a meeting every week. I have found out that they do not do anything at their meetings but play cards and they play for money, or the same thing. When Louella came home from her club last week she showed me a new handkerchief all done up in a box and tied with a ribbon. And I says to her, 'Louella, why did you go and buy another handkerchief? You had plenty of handkerchiefs.' And she said, 'I did not buy it, I won it. I made a great slam at spades and that gave me the biggest score.' Well, I could not understand what she was talking about at first, but when I did I could of sunk through the floor.

Well, that is bad enough, but it is not the worst. When Louella came home she had her hair bobbed and you could mighty near see through her. Seemed like she didn't have nothing on hardly. I never was so ashamed in my life. I tried to talk to her but all she would say was, 'Well, I looked pretty good to the men at the Springs. They paid me a number of compliments.' The way she goes around is something awful. Thin slippers and silk stockings all the time, and she dresses up and sits around or goes to town every afternoon. I said to her, 'Louella, ain't you afraid you will take cold?' And all she said was, 'People who have learned how to live do not take cold.' I couldn't make head nor tail of it. Sometimes I think her mind is gone. When I can't understand a person they certainly are talking jibberish. She said something the other night about a permanent wave—I think it was wave. I says to her, 'What is that?' And she says, 'It is something that is pretty painful. It is going to cost you $35 when I get it.' It sounded foolish to me.

Well, I guess LaFollette is going to be elected. There was some sort of doctor stayed all night at my house last week. He was selling medicine. He said if it didn't cure he would give the money back. He said he had been around everywhere and it was a sure thing that LaFollette would get it! He said the people were all for him. It's about time somebody who will do something for the people was elected, and I am glad it is going to turn out that way. The doctor gave me six bottles of medicine for staying all night and I tried to get Louella to take some of it. She wouldn't touch it. All she did was sniff and say, 'I have took my medicine.' Well, be sure and come out and stay at my house if you come.

Your friend,
WM. F. Dey.

FORTY MINUTES VIEW OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS AT GENEVA

Prime Minister MacDonald declared to the assembly September 14 that Great Britain saw the hope of future peace only in the extension of the policy of arbitration and the development of the League of Nations.

The British statesman warned the world against regarding national security as merely a military problem based on the predominance of force, and he urged the convocation of a disarmament conference in Europe, attended by representatives of all countries, including the United States and Germany.

An immediate stand should be made toward the preparation for the conference he said, thus advancing the lasting interests of peace.

He also declared that Germany could not remain outside the League, and asked for action along this line at the present session of the assembly.

The British Prime Minister in declaring that the time had come to arrange a new disarmament conference said that all plans for security, including the American plan, should be turned over to a special commission, which would study them all and seek a basis for the conference. The best way of handling the problem of aggression, he said, was to set up a court or courts of arbitration.

BEING RIGHT

More than once in a while
For the sake of a friend
And the light of his smile,
Or a trial to end
He stopped by the way
And with never a sign
He gave up the day
And let the riches go by.

Not always for self
Did he labor and think;
Not always for self
With its musical clink;
Now and then for the sake
Of another he'd stay
And let all he could make
For himself dance away.

There were cynics who sneered
There were those with a smirk,
Who said this appeared
Like neglecting his work.
And to let money go
Which was waiting at hand,
For a friend, high or low,
They could not understand.

'Oh, a man's not a man.'
Once he whispered to me
'Unless some times he can Look about him and see
Something more than the sign
Of the dollar in sight
And will do something fine
For the sake of being right.'

ANIMAL TRAINER OF THIS CITY TO HAVE ACT IN VAUDEVILLE

J. E. Bone, this city, manager and trainer of Sargent's European Comedy Circus is preparing to enter thirty-five weeks of Keith's circuit after finishing ten fair engagements during the summer. The act will reach Dayton in December.

The pony, dog and monkey act in charge of Mr. Bone was one of the biggest features of the fair this week at Kankakee, Ill., the sixth fair where the act appeared this summer.

According to the Kankakee Daily Republican, "the act captivated the crowd and won the hearts of the children and grown-ups alike."

"The highly trained animals do some of the most difficult feats known to trainers with an ease which shows to what perfection their training has been carried. They perform acrobatic and riding stunts and mix in comedy which is human-like."

THE PROBLEM OF THE HOUSE HUNTER IS NOW IN ORDER

1904-Twenty Years Ago-1924

The great and thrilling performance, which is being enacted by the Hildebrandt circus, which is now about the country, was repeated in Xenia today.

The gallant old 74th Regiment held its reunion in this city on Thursday and in welcome to the veterans the business houses hung out the stars and stripes in unusual profusion and the city presented quite a gala appearance.

A meeting of the Central High football team was held last night in the high school library, at which the first steps were taken for disposing of the money raised among the business men by subscription. Twelve new blue sweaters will be purchased.

Today ended the straw hat crop for 1904, according to the calendar, and Jack Frost took advantage of the date to put in his appearance.

ber of women from the nine counties comprising the District. All appointments had been previously endorsed by the executive committees of the various counties.

U. G. Murell and Mrs. Grace B. Ballard, of Wilmington, received the appointment from Clinton County; Union County, Harry Agner, of Milford Center, and Mrs. Anna Jones, of Richmond, and Madison County, Judge R. G. Hornbeck, of London, and Mrs. E. W. Keiffer, of Lafayette.

I recently had a discussion on housework with a woman who keeps two maids. "I can't afford two maids," she told me, "but you can't catch me breaking down from housework—and of course one maid can't do everything in a home."

"But why need you break down doing housework?" I demanded. She shrugged. "Hospitals and sanitariums are full of broken-down housekeepers," she argued.

Naturally our discussion did not stop right there. I had much to say! For, here was a charge against my pet belief: the belief that no woman need break down doing housework if she works in a sensible way.

Of course I am not referring to a woman who is already ill from other causes; housework may be very bad for such a woman. I am simply saying that no healthy woman need lose any of her health over housework.

On the contrary, housework should keep a woman strong and normal and sane. It should satisfy a need which every woman possesses: the need to be of use in the world. Mental work may be a strain on the nerves, but manual work such as cleaning, cooking and dish-washing will soothe the nerves if properly done. Working with the hands is the most natural and peaceful thing in the world.

Why, then, are sanitariums harboring women who have broken down from housekeeping, as my friend pointed out? Because there are extremists in all lines of work. Those women were the extremists in the line of housekeeping. Those women broke down because they rushed through their work with a frown on their foreheads and a sense of strain in their minds. Such an attitude will break down any person in any field of endeavor—so don't blame housework for these results!

But the housekeeper who goes through her daily tasks placidly, with dignity in her heart and calmness in her mind, need not fear a breakdown. For she is master of her work, rather than being mastered by her work.

OLD PLACES

That delightful and sweet souled writer, David Grayson, says that "a man should never write under compulsion: a man should write when he is in love with someone or something."

I am always in love with old places. I love the very dirt of time and wind against their outside and the very worn and warped wood and plaster that their insides present.

I like to think of all the things of life that have made that place sweet and glorified. I even like to think of the scars that have come out of the doors. I like to think of the smiles and tears, the days of anxious watching, the laughter, the beauty and tragedy that have each left their tracks behind.

An old place has something of the sacredness of beauty and of heaven about it.

It is wonderful to step upon a floor that has been tread by a mother, a father, and tiny baby feet. And then, to think of all the lengthening experiences from then on until you add to these experiences. For your tracks, invisible though they may seem after you have gone, will as surely become a part of that old place as the deep grooves of the floorings.

The other day I took an inviting road into the woods, far in the mountains, away from the paved road that streamed with cars coming and going. This strange road led through mountains and was of dirt, winding and running up and down, around rocks and across small streams.

The entire section looked deserted—for why I know not. How could such beauty of scenery and such peacefulness of surroundings be left to itself I thought?

Though there were many houses, all seemed to be tumbling or just deserted with the exception of one or two during the entire twenty miles through the mountains.

I stopped my car and walked up to the front steps of one of these old places. I sat there for a long time and watched the pictures of fancy. Love—and perhaps a bride and groom. Little children, chickens picking here and there, cows grazing on the slopes of the towering hills, the neighing of the horse in the barn and the swish of his tail. These were the simple figures that filled in the pictures that floated before the eyes of my imagination.

I thought of all that life which had been presented to those who had lived and loved here.

And then I thought of those back in the city who never find the time to rest or recreate, to dream or to think about how small is success without living.

ESTIMATED 700 RESPO ND HERE TO OBSERVE FIRST NATIONAL DEF ENSE TEST DAY FRIDAY

Approximately 700 representatives of various military and civilian organizations in Xenia and vicinity will be present in Xenia for the first National Defense Day Friday. The National Defense Day Friday that Greene County is amply prepared to mobilize its reserve strength within twenty-four hours in case of a national emergency.

The threatened downpour of rain held off a length of time sufficient to enable the parade to be staged and a majority of the speeches heard.

Led by the Police Department, which broke a path through the massed assemblage of people on hand to witness the exercises, the parade, three blocks in length, wended its way from the overhead bridge on South Detroit Street through the business section of the city, and disbanded in front of the reviewing stand on the Market Street side of the Court House.

Every military and many civilian organizations in the city responded to the nation-wide call sent out by President Coolidge requesting through local officers, that the reserve military and civilian strength of each county be mobilized.

Coupled with the military organizations which were recruited to their number of civilian organizations, and to their war time strength, was a long line of automobiles.

Following the police came the last representatives of the Grand Army of the Republic, about fifty in number with the rifle and drum corps, now consisting of one rifle and three drums. A small field gun was also towed along by members of the Womens Relief Corps to the G. A. R.

Company L Band, came next, followed by Company L, 147th Infantry, National Guard, under the command of Captain Leroy John.

Two armed companies of the O. S. and S. O. Home Battalion followed on the heels of Company L. Next came a representation from Joseph P. Pooty Post, No. 95, American Legion, consisting of the bugle and drum corps, and about thirty war veterans, and the Auxiliary.

Following the American Legion and Auxiliary was the Red Cross car driven by Dr. W. A. Galloway, chairman of production during the world war, and Miss Louise B. Shaffer, ex-secretary. The car carried a float which represented the "Greatest Mother in the World," personified by Mrs. Chas. Bales, watching over the wounded soldiers and a Red Cross nurse, parts taken by Loren Wright world war veteran, Olen Waltz and Miss Helen Evers, local Red Cross nurse.

A car carrying women active in Red Cross work followed and another car carrying several of the nine enrolled Red Cross nurses in Greene County.

The Red Cross is indebted to G. W. Gearhart, for decorating the float, Edward Lang for the use of his truck and Ralph Need for his ambulance and all others who took part.

Members of the D. A. R., Boy Scouts, Knights of Columbus, Eagles, Xenia Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Citizens' Military Training Camps, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, a Fire Department and a long line of automobiles brought up the rear.

After the parade disbanded and the assemblage gathered on the Court House lawn, the program in connection with the day was opened by C. L. Darlington, general chairman, who explained the various reasons for observance of National Defense Test Day.

"The late war caught us unprepared," said Mr. Darlington, "and as a result there was a useless sacrifice of lives and a waste of millions of dollars. The war taught us the lesson of preparedness and preparedness is the sole aim and purpose of National Defense Day."

The invocation for national welfare was pronounced by the Rev. Charles P. Proudfit. The assembly, led by the G. A. R., then sang a verse of "We Will Rally Around the Flag Once More."

Mr. Darlington then introduced the first speaker of the evening the Rev. W. H. Tilford, president of the American Red Cross, Greene County chapter. Rev. Tilford said: "The local Red Cross in Greene County is so organized that in response to a call from National Headquarters, the local Red Cross Committee in every township would function within a few hours. Every town in the county is represented on the present executive board and is a member of the committee in his township thus making a complete working basis in case of war. He pledged the support of the local Red Cross in case of a national emergency."

Mrs. William M. Wilson, national vice-president of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the next speaker, gave statistics on the work of the D. A. R., during the late war and said: "We are the first free nation in the world and we want to keep that honor intact. I hereby pledge the support of the women of the D. A. R., of the county to service in defense of the flag."

Emmett Bergen, grand knight of the Knights of Columbus, also pledged support of his organization and cited the fact that during the war the Knights of Columbus sent twenty-four men out of a local membership of 125, overseas. Mr. Bergen said: "From experience gained through past experiences we now feel that we are ready for any future national emergency."

Dr. B. R. McClellan pledged his support to the flag and said: "Men of Xenia believe in upright young men and my greatest ambition, is to have the young men of the next generation well trained and their loyalty to the flag above reproach. Let us pledge ourselves ever to be ready when the call comes for service to the flag."

The threatened downpour of rain broke at this time, stopping the program. Speeches from P. H. Creswell, American Legion, and W. B. Bryson, president of the Greene County Farm Bureau, were not given because of the rain. The Rev. W. H. Tilford pronounced a benediction. Playing of the band during the speaking marred the short program.

Previous to the exercises and speeches, Company L, was reviewed by First Lieutenant Robert Eisle and Captain Williams, state officers, on the Court House lawn.

The company was complimented on its fine representation.

The good Maxwell chassis has in the past three years undergone a steady and sound mechanical development. The result is that no four-cylinder motor car of anywhere near the price can match the good Maxwell in performance and certainly no four can equal it in value.

The fact that Walter P. Chrysler has now brought his name into definite association with the good Maxwell is a significant and a direct result of the high position that the good Maxwell has attained as an outstanding engineering work.

Those in the industry who know Mr. Chrysler best, realize that he would not and could not connect his name with anything but a superior product. His statements concerning the good Maxwell, then, can be taken as certification of Maxwell merit in design and construction. The same progressive but solidly wise treatment that has been active to make the good Maxwell a car of finer performance, has recently been converted to the development of new beauty, finer appearance.

From the very first the good Maxwell attracted attention because of its striking, yet dignified grace of line. Now it is beautified and refined to a higher degree; the generous use of nickel trimmings, the addition of color at just the right spots, the finer and more attractive fittings, the special equipment, intensify the inherent grace of each of the six body types.

And in these six distinctive cars, Maxwell buyers find a wide range of selection. The complete field of present day motoring demand is well covered. The solid value of each car, the mechanical superiority common to every good Maxwell, the new-found beauty, make any choice of the buyer a wise choice.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF STUDEBAKER MAKES
WEEK'S SENSATION

The big news of the week in the automobile world is Studebaker's announcement of new models.

Because of the dominating position which this manufacturer holds, motorists throughout the city have been flocking to the Studebaker showrooms to see these newest achievements in motoring luxuries.

There are fifteen entirely new Studebaker models, and each model is a complete refinement of the previous line. The designs are new—something never before seen on an American automobile.

Motorists are now offered by Studebaker the following new line: An entirely new type of open and closed car, a new medium weight six, a new four-passenger closed car, optional four-wheel brakes of remarkable design, genuine balloon tires—fifteen original and distinctive new bodies.

A creation originated by Studebaker, which, it is believed, will supercede the present day open car is the new Duplex body. This new Studebaker is an open car which can be converted magically in five seconds into a waterproof, snug and dry, closed car of unsurpassing beauty. This new Duplex Studebaker body is an outstanding sensation.

This car has unusually beautiful lines, the finest Spanish leather upholstery and an unusual number of equipment features.

Studebaker announces an entirely new Standard Six which takes the place of the former Light Six and while it follows mechanically the general design of that car it has a new and larger motor, the entire car is larger, heavier and much more beautiful and has much more room. Of course the new duplex body entirely supercedes the former open touring car and open roadster bodies, not only in the new Standard Six but in the other two models the Special Six and the Big Six.

The new duplex body on the Standard Six at the former price of $1,145 for the five passenger phaeton and who likes an open car and also the $1,125 for the three passenger roadster marks a real opportunity for the buyer who likes an open car and also the comfort and protection of a closed car. Studebaker claims that it can satisfy both demands and at the price of the open car.

A. J. BLACK QUITS XENIA SCHOOLS TO ENTER BOYS' WORK

A. J. Black who has been connected with the Xenia public schools for the past seven years, recently physical director and instructor in manual training at Junior High School, has resigned his position to take charge of boys' work at the Y. M. C. A., at Mount Vernon, O., next week.

He will leave for his new position next Tuesday and his family will reside in that city. No successor to Mr. Black has been appointed as yet by C. A. Waltz, superintendent of schools. E. G. Whitworth, of Indiana, graduate of Earlham College joins the Central High School staff Monday, as leader of the band and will have charge of Mr. Black's athletic work. Miss Margaret Clark will take over part of the work until the successor has been appointed.

Mr. Black has been active in boys' work in the city and has been a leader in many juvenile organizations.

Mr. Herman Quirk, who is seriously ill at his home, 30 Leaman Street, remains in the same condition. He has been confined to his home for about two months.

NEW ORGAN WILL BE USED FIRST TIME AT BIJOU MONDAY NIGHT

The $8,000 Wurlitzer Unit Organ, equipped with as many instruments as a symphony orchestra, which is being installed at the Bijou Theatre, by the Wurlitzer Company, will be used for the first time Monday evening, September 15, it was announced Friday by J. T. Hibbert, proprietor of the theatre.

The new organ is installed in a special air-tight room above the stage, while the tones come through an opening at the top of the screen. Work of installation has been progressing for more than a week, and the final touch, the chimes effect, will be installed Monday morning and afternoon in order that the organ will be completely equipped at the opening that evening.

In connection with the opening, John P. McCarthy's great American picture, "Out of the Dust," will be shown.

The organ, while not as large as that in use at the B. F. Keith Theatre in Dayton, is modeled exactly after it, and comprises sixteen different tones and musical effects, such as trap drums, chimes, "vox humana," or human voice, treble flute, salicional, glockenspiel, euphone, chrysogott, Bourban pipes, bass drum, tremulant and string base.

THREE ARRESTED AND LIQUOR IS TAKEN

Harry Strain, George Janning and Joseph Kraft, Dayton, were each fined $500 and costs and sentenced to the Dayton Work House until the fines are paid, by Judge E. D. Smith, Saturday afternoon.

Three men arrested early Saturday morning on charges of possessing liquor and being drunk, pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Judge E. Dawson Smith in Police Court Saturday morning.

The trio was arrested in a Ford coupe by Patrolmen Craig and Saunders after a long chase in the police car that led them all over the city. They registered at headquarters as Harry Strain, George Janning and Joseph Kraft, all of Dayton.

Six half pints of corn liquor were taken from Strain and Kraft by the arresting officers. Hearings were scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

MODISH MITZI—Mitzi Says Knitting's Just a Social Gesture

By Jay V. Jay

"You don't think you're really going to make something, do you?" Mitzi asks Polly. "It's a nice domestic thing to do; but if you want something knitted that you can wear, come shopping with me and let me show you new knitted styles."

Here is Polly in the newest style, the ensemble suit, shown in knitted fabric. The coat is lined with crepe de chine. The coat and dress match, of course, and both are as smart as any sport costume could possibly be.

This knitted costume for the tag ends of summer and for early fall. "Perfect," murmurs Polly thinking of golf and long walks. The suit consists of a skirt and vest. The blouse may be of flannel or silk according to the weather.

And the smartest sort of sport coat is this hand knitted affair with its bizarre design carried out in warm shades of tan and brown. It is three quarter length. Polly is thinking how long she would have had to knit to make it.

15 New Studebakers

Including an entirely new type of car—the DUPLEX-PHAETON

Today Studebaker has made Automobile History and established standards of value and quality more fully and obviously than ever before.

TODAY Studebaker proves that beautiful, distinctive, stylish body lines can be originated by American body designers without following precedent or imitating or adapting what has been done before.

Today Studebaker proves that a practical and beautiful type of car can be made to combine the pleasure and performance of the open car and the comfort and protection of the closed car—and this without excessive price or compromised quality—a car "duplex" in open-car smartness and convenience and closed-car elegance and comfort—and at a price no higher than that of an open car!

Today Studebaker proves, in its new Standard Six Duplex model, that a six-cylinder car of fine quality, great power, plenty of room and impressive appearance can be made and marketed at a price of $1145.

Today Studebaker proves in its new Special Six and its Big Six Duplex models that the ultimate in all the essential features of quality in five- and seven-passenger cars can be made and marketed at a price of $1495 and $1875 respectively.

And this is possible only because Studebaker cars are made in one of the most comprehensive industrial plants in this country, 70 per cent of which is new within the last six years.

Every modern method of manufacture and long experienced management are available for the production of Studebaker automobiles.

Today Studebaker proves that the highest grade closed car bodies—framed in selected hard woods, cushioned with the best cushion work, upholstered in fine mohair fabrics and fitted with expensive appointments—can be made and marketed on superlatively good chassis at moderate prices.

This is made possible by the new $10,000,000 Studebaker closed body plants. Studebaker designs and builds all of its closed bodies in one of the best equipped and most modern body plants in the industry.

The Three New Chassis

THE STUDEBAKER STANDARD SIX—113 in. wheelbase, 5-passenger. Engine,  $3\frac{3}{4} \times 4\frac{1}{2}$ , 50 b.h.p.—with 6 different bodies, including Duplex-Phaeton, Duplex-Roadster, Coupe-Roadster, Coupe, Sedan, and Berline.

THE STUDEBAKER SPECIAL SIX—120 in. wheelbase, 5-passenger. Engine,  $3\frac{1}{2} \times 5$ , 65 b.h.p.—with 5 different bodies, including Duplex-Phaeton, Duplex-Roadster, Victoria, Sedan, and Berline.

THE STUDEBAKER BIG SIX—127 in. wheelbase, 7-passenger. Engine,  $3\frac{1}{2} \times 5$ , 75 b.h.p.—with 4 different bodies, including Duplex-Phaeton, Coupe, Sedan, and Berline.

The Ten New Closed Bodies

COMPLETELY NEW BODIES—each car a masterly expression of modern style, yet distinctly

Three completely new chassis!... 15 completely new bodies!
Completely new lines!... Marvelous new performance
Completely new open-closed car!

Completely new radiators, new fenders, new lamps, new seating comfort, new finish, new colors in lacquer finish, three improved engines

Real balloon tires, not low-pressure cords. Sizes—21"x 5.25" to 20"x 7.30".

New Studebaker automatic hydraulic 4-wheel brakes—optional.

New values, never before equaled—even by Studebaker!

original in beautiful lines—individual, conservative, impressively elegant, but crisp enough in its departure from imitation to be entirely distinctive.

The Five New Duplex Bodies

(A new type of car originated by Studebaker to take the place of the open car)

SO ENTIRELY NEW and so different from any other body ever made before that a new name had to be created—the DUPLEX.

The upper structure is shaped in pressed steel and covered with the finest water-proof fabric. The steel construction permits the use of another radical Studebaker creation, the new roller enclosing curtains. There is the permanent beauty and durability of the steel top plus the instant convenience of the roller curtains.

Thus Studebaker engineers have solved the open-closed car problem.

The buyer who wants the airiness and practical convenience of the open car and who also wants the comfort, protection and beauty of the closed car can now get both in one car and at the price of an open car.

One moment the new Studebaker Duplex is a beautiful open car—a touch of the hand to the overlapping roller curtains and it is a snug weather-tight closed car.

Balloon Tires

Genuine and full size balloon tires on all models. Every part that functions with the tires has been specially designed for balloon tire equipment—steering gear, steering knuckles, spindles and springs, even the fenders.

New Lacquer Finish

The Standard Six closed bodies are beautifully finished in semi-glaze, satin lacquer. The hood and lower panels are in light gray, the upper panels in darker gray. Hairline parallel striping in oriental red. Burnished nickel radiators, jet black fenders, light golden finished, natural wood wheels and big balloon tires are contrasting touches.

The Standard Duplex Models are finished in glossy jet enamel—lasting, lustrous and wear-resisting.

The Special Six and the Big Six Duplex models are in soft satin lacquer with dark blue hoods and bodies striped in light blue and ivory. Here, too, the sparkle is added with burnished nickel radiators and light, natural wood wheels in contrast with jet black fenders and big, black balloon tires.

More Power

The universally famous Studebaker engine is more than ever a peer among power plants. The crankshaft is heavier. ALL surfaces are perfectly machined to exact dimensions and balance. The bearings are larger.

The engine is in unit with the clutch and transmission. There is a force feed lubrication system with clean, strained oil always in reserve. There are many changes and improvements which result in MORE POWER, MORE QUIETNESS and SMOOTHNESS and STILL BETTER PERFORMANCE in every way.

New Brakes

Larger, more powerful, simpler and much easier operated two-wheel brakes. An entirely new emergency brake is operated from the instrument board, instantly convenient to the driver's hand where it simplifies the control and frees the floor board from the old style lever. It acts on the propeller shaft. There is uniform pressure at each wheel—equalized through the rear axle.

The regular two-wheel Studebaker brakes with their simplicity, safety and great braking power are entirely adequate.

But Studebaker 4-Wheel Hydraulic Brakes (with disc wheels) can be furnished as optional equipment on all models at extra charge if desired.

Studebaker 4-Wheel Brakes have three exclusive features not found on any other system in this country.

1. Braking pressure is furnished by hydraulic power automatically developed. A light touch to the braking pedal controls its great force like a touch to the throttle controls the power of the engine. This feature will appeal instantly to women.

2. The front wheels cannot lock.

3. There are only two adjustments required—one at each rear wheel. The front brakes are permanently adjusted at the factory. The oil in the transmission is used to generate the hydraulic power; the action of the gears and the pump keep it in circulation; it cannot congeal or freeze. Braking power is always instantly ready—in winter as well as in summer!

New Ease of Operation

New Ease of Gear Shifting—New power in braking, a touch to the pedal exerts a giant's strength at the rear wheels—New clutch action, soft as velvet—A new steering gear and steering knuckles designed for balloon tires—A new grouping on the dash, including ALL the usual instruments plus a gasoline gauge that always works accurately.

Lighting Control Switches—all on the steering wheel—instantly handy.

Automatic Spark Control—No manual attention required, so the lever is eliminated. Automatically governed to all speeds with the precision of machinery.

And the Details

The new cars are longer and lower to the ground. The line from the radiator to the rear is nearly straight. The wheelbase of all models is increased.

The fenders are much wider and deeper crowned to cover the width of the tires. They fit more closely over the wheels. The rear fenders are long and gracefully curved into the running boards.

The radiators are high and set low in the frames and convex curved just below the filler cap. The design is strikingly original and beautifully distinctive.

Entirely new head lamps and cowl parking lamps designed by Studebaker—critically appropriate and in perfect keeping with the originality of the body and fender design.

Deeper, stiffer frames, more cross members; shorter, flatter springs for balloon tires. All bodies lower, all roomier, better and more comfortably cushioned. Seats are lower, backs and sides are higher.

Look Forward Into Next Year

The new Studebaker is here today! And no matter how sweeping your ideas of what a new model should be this car will satisfy you. It will thrill you with the very newness and originality of its beautiful lines!

You may not be in the market now, or even this year. But to see the new Studebaker is to look forward into next year—and the year after! SEE IT TODAY!

The Luxury of Love

by VIOLET DARE

AUTHOR OF "The Half-Time Wife," "Love or Fame?" ETC.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

MARY HAYWARD, a famous beauty, is in love with

BRUCE GILLIAN, but during a misunderstanding with him has married

SIR NIGEL CAVENTISH, a visiting Englishman, whom she hardly knows, and who has been called home immediately after the ceremony by the death of his father.

The trouble between Mary and Bruce has been caused by CAMILLA WAITE, to whom Mary is strangely indebted. Gillian meets Mary unexpectedly and learns of her marriage. They decide to steal one day together before he leaves for Alaska and she sails for London, and spend it at one of the beaches near New York.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XXII—A ROMANTIC ADVENTURE

RENTING a bathing suit at one of the big bathhouses was a brand new experience for Mary, and one that delighted her. She was given a black knitted suit, and bought a black cap with bright colored rubber flowers to go with it, also some sandals. She dressed in a tiny, rather dark coop of a room, listening with amusement to the conversation carried on by the women in the booths on either side of her.

"I do hope Jim took good care of the lunch basket," worried one of them, who evidently was inserting two of her offspring into their bathing suits. "I know it was extravagant, but I got a chicken for today; fried it, you know, and made some cup cakes to go with it, and got rolls and pickles."

"Well, I just bring sandwiches for my kids; they fill up on hot dogs anyway," remarked the other. "It's expensive, but we're coming down here every day instead of going away somewhere for a vacation; it's cheaper in the end. They—now Janie, don't you go anywhere near the pool; wait for mother. Let's see—Lou, did you bring extra stockings, by any chance?"

"No—never wear 'em any more. I started in early in the summer, but I said to Jim, 'With so many pretty girls going in nobody's going to know what I have on, so I'm going to be comfortable,' and now I just go in bare-legged. Ready? Go on, Susan—and take Sammy's cap; I forgot to give it to him."

Mary smiled as she fastened the key of her dressing room around one wrist and tucked her bracelets into her handbag, to be checked. What a sane, satisfactory life these women led; how much better it was than the frenzied existence of women like Camilla and Vera Atwood and herself.

She met Gillian at the beach entrance of the bathhouse, and they lunched together in a little restaurant that fronted on the sands, with people in bathing suits all about them. Afterward they sat on the sand and Gillian smoked; for the first time in her life Mary refused a cigarette when she really wanted one.

"I know that a lot of these girls are smoking," she admitted, "but somehow it doesn't seem to me to be the thing to do. When I'm with you I want to be dreadfully conventional and domestic and nice; I really yearn for the sort of prosy married life that I've always scoffed at. Only it could never be prosy with you, Bruce."

For an instant he laid his hand over hers.

"Marriage would be heaven with you, Mary," he answered quietly. She felt like a harp swept by the winds of love. Never in all her life had she known such happiness as was hers in that moment.

They went into the surf later, contenting themselves for a time with jumping the waves; then swam for out through the greenish water, side by side, Bruce moving with long, lazy strokes, Mary swimming as gracefully as she danced. The world had ceased to exist for them; blue sky above, green, salt water all about them, the consciousness of each other's presence—these filled all the universe.

"I wish we need never go back," sighed Mary, as they approached the shore again. "I wish we could just go on swimming forever."

"So do I," he answered regretfully. "I don't dare look into the future. We'll make the most of every moment of today though, and perhaps the gods will be kind and we'll have each other sooner than we think possible now."

"Something has got to happen!" declared Mary, as she waded out through the shallow water and paused to wring the water from her bathing suit. "Oh, Bruce, surely, if we live the very best we know how, and don't do anything that hurts anyone else, surely we aren't going to be punished for that madness of mine in marrying Nigel. He knew that I didn't love him—I told him I didn't. Bruce, I don't want to live if I can't be with you."

He looked at her curiously, but said nothing. Even after they had dressed and joined each other again for dinner he was very quiet. He had rented a beach umbrella and some chairs, and paid their owner extra in order to keep them as late as they wished. They were sitting, watching the sun sink into the waves, when he turned to her suddenly and took both her hands in his.

"Mary," he began, so quietly that for a moment she did not sense the tenseness in his voice, "what if Nigel won't release you? What if he insists on your remaining his wife? Must that mean the end of everything for us? Must we be separated forever, loving each other as we do?"

She looked up at him frankly, her great gray eyes alight with love. "I shan't even admit the possibility of that, Bruce," she answered. "But I cannot drag out my life without you. If Nigel refuses, I shall take things into my own hands, somehow. I'm not afraid of anything in life except losing you."

MRS. YOUNG ENTHUSIASTIC

Cannot Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Enough. Sick Women Read This Letter

Charleston, S. C.—"I was completely run-down and not able to do my housework. I just dragged myself around and did not have energy enough to get up when I sat down. I read advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in your books and learned about it. I got benefit from the very first bottle. I continued to take it for some time, and now I am doing all my own work, even washing and ironing, and never felt better in my life. I tell all my friends that the change in my health is due to but one thing and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I cannot praise it enough."—Mrs. ANNIE YOUNG, 16 Amherst St., Charleston, S. C.

The reason for such a letter from Mrs. Young is apparent. She got well and is grateful. Recently a nation-wide canvass of women purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was made, and 88 out of 100 reported that they received benefit from taking it.

Just because the Vegetable Compound has been helping other women is a good reason why it should help you. For sale by druggists everywhere.
